

Please do not vote to change the current FCC ownership rules. We must guard against private companies being served at the expense of the public. A public that is well-informed from diverse sources is our democracy's greatest security.